RELATING TO BUSINESSES AND PROFESSIONS -- CONFIDENTIALITY OF HEALTH CARE COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION ACT -- HEALTH CARE
COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION

Introduced By: Senators Perry, Miller, Goodwin, Sosnowski, and Gallo

Date Introduced: February 09, 2010

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 5-37.3-4 of the General Laws in Chapter 5-37.3 entitled 2 "Confidentiality of Health Care Communications and Information Act" is hereby amended to read 3 as follows:

4 5-37.3-4. Limitations on and permitted disclosures. -- (a) (1) Except as provided in 5 subsection (b) of this section or as specifically provided by the law, a patient's confidential health 6 care information shall not be released or transferred without the written consent of the patient or 7 his or her authorized representative, on a consent form meeting the requirements of subsection (d) 8 of this section. A copy of any notice used pursuant to subsection (d) of this section, and of any 9 signed consent shall, upon request, be provided to the patient prior to his or her signing a consent
10 form. Any and all managed care entities and managed care contractors writing policies in the state 11 shall be prohibited from providing any information related to enrollees which is personal in 12 nature and could reasonably lead to identification of an individual and is not essential for the 13 compilation of statistical data related to enrollees, to any international, national, regional, or local 14 medical information data base. This provision shall not restrict or prohibit the transfer of 15 information to the department of health to carry out its statutory duties and responsibilities.

16 (2) Any person who violates the provisions of this section may be liable for actual and 17 punitive damages.

18 (3) The court may award a reasonable attorney's fee at its discretion to the prevailing

1 party in any civil action under this section.

2 (4) Any person who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of this section 3 shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than five thousand ($5,000) dollars for each violation, 4 or imprisoned not more than six (6) months for each violation, or both.

5 (5) Any contract or agreement which purports to waive the provisions of this section 6 shall be declared null and void as against public policy.

7 (b) No consent for release or transfer of confidential health care information shall be 8 required in the following situations:

9 (1) To a physician, dentist, or other medical personnel who believes, in good faith, that 10 the information is necessary for diagnosis or treatment of that individual in a medical or dental 11 emergency;

12 (2) To medical and dental peer review boards, or the board of medical licensure and 13 discipline, or board of examiners in dentistry;

14 (3) To qualified personnel for the purpose of conducting scientific research, management 15 audits, financial audits, program evaluations, actuarial, insurance underwriting, or similar studies; 16 provided, that personnel shall not identify, directly or indirectly, any individual patient in any 17 report of that research, audit, or evaluation, or otherwise disclose patient identities in any manner;

18 (4) By a health care provider to appropriate law enforcement personnel, or to a person if 19 the health care provider believes that person or his or her family is in danger from a patient; or to 20 appropriate law enforcement personnel if the patient has or is attempting to obtain narcotic drugs 21 from the health care provider illegally; or to appropriate law enforcement personnel or 22 appropriate child protective agencies if the patient is a minor child ~~who~~ or the parent or guardian 23 of said child and the health care provider believes, after providing health care services to the 24 patient, ~~to have been that the child is or has been~~ physically, ~~or~~ psychologically or sexually 25 abused and/or neglected as reportable pursuant to section 40-11-3; or to law enforcement 26 personnel in the case of a gunshot wound reportable under section 11-47-48;

27 (5) Between or among qualified personnel and health care providers within the health 28 care system for purposes of coordination of health care services given to the patient and for 29 purposes of education and training within the same health care facility; or 30 (6) To third party health insurers including to utilization review agents as provided by 31 section 23-17.12-9(c)(4), third party administrators licensed pursuant to chapter 20.7 of title 27 32 and other entities that provide operational support to adjudicate health insurance claims or 33 administer health benefits;

34 (7) To a malpractice insurance carrier or lawyer if the health care provider has reason to

1 anticipate a medical liability action; or

2 (8) (i) To the health care provider's own lawyer or medical liability insurance carrier if 3 the patient whose information is at issue brings a medical liability action against a health care 4 provider.

5 (ii) Disclosure by a health care provider of a patient's health care information which is 6 relevant to a civil action brought by the patient against any person or persons other than that 7 health care provider may occur only under the discovery methods provided by the applicable
8 rules of civil procedure (federal or state). This disclosure shall not be through ex parte contacts 9 and not through informal ex parte contacts with the provider by persons other than the patient or 10 his or her legal representative. Nothing in this section shall limit the right of a patient or his or her 11 attorney to consult with that patient's own physician and to obtain that patient's own health care 12 information;

13 (9) To public health authorities in order to carry out their functions as described in this 14 title and titles 21 and 23, and rules promulgated under those titles. These functions include, but 15 are not restricted to, investigations into the causes of disease, the control of public health hazards, 16 enforcement of sanitary laws, investigation of reportable diseases, certification and licensure of 17 health professionals and facilities, review of health care such as that required by the federal 18 government and other governmental agencies;

19 (10) To the state medical examiner in the event of a fatality that comes under his or her 20 jurisdiction;

21 (11) In relation to information that is directly related to current claim for workers' 22 compensation benefits or to any proceeding before the workers' compensation commission or 23 before any court proceeding relating to workers' compensation;

24 (12) To the attorneys for a health care provider whenever that provider considers that 25 release of information to be necessary in order to receive adequate legal representation;

26 (13) By a health care provider to appropriate school authorities of disease, health 27 screening and/or immunization information required by the school; or when a school age child 28 transfers from one school or school district to another school or school district;

29 (14) To a law enforcement authority to protect the legal interest of an insurance 30 institution, agent, or insurance-support organization in preventing and prosecuting the 31 perpetration of fraud upon them;

32 (15) To a grand jury or to a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to a subpoena or 33 subpoena duces tecum when that information is required for the investigation or prosecution of 34 criminal wrongdoing by a health care provider relating to his or her or its provisions of health

1 care services and that information is unavailable from any other source; provided, that any 2 information so obtained is not admissible in any criminal proceeding against the patient to whom 3 that information pertains;

4 (16) To the state board of elections pursuant to a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum
5 when that information is required to determine the eligibility of a person to vote by mail ballot 6 and/or the legitimacy of a certification by a physician attesting to a voter's illness or disability;

7 (17) To certify, pursuant to chapter 20 of title 17, the nature and permanency of a 8 person's illness or disability, the date when that person was last examined and that it would be an 9 undue hardship for the person to vote at the polls so that the person may obtain a mail ballot;

10 (18) To the central cancer registry;

11 (19) To the Medicaid fraud control unit of the attorney general's office for the 12 investigation or prosecution of criminal or civil wrongdoing by a health care provider relating to 13 his or her or its provision of health care services to then Medicaid eligible recipients or patients, 14 residents, or former patients or residents of long term residential care facilities; provided, that any 15 information obtained shall not be admissible in any criminal proceeding against the patient to 16 whom that information pertains;

17 (20) To the state department of children, youth, and families pertaining to the disclosure 18 of health care records of children in the custody of the department;

19 (21) To the foster parent or parents pertaining to the disclosure of health care records of 20 children in the custody of the foster parent or parents; provided, that the foster parent or parents 21 receive appropriate training and have ongoing availability of supervisory assistance in the use of 22 sensitive information that may be the source of distress to these children;

23 (22) A hospital may release the fact of a patient's admission and a general description of 24 a patient's condition to persons representing themselves as relatives or friends of the patient or as 25 a representative of the news media. The access to confidential health care information to persons 26 in accredited educational programs under appropriate provider supervision shall not be deemed 27 subject to release or transfer of that information under subsection (a) of this section; or

28 (23) To the workers' compensation fraud prevention unit for purposes of investigation
29 under sections 42-16.1-12 -- 42-16.1-16. The release or transfer of confidential health care 30 information under any of the above exceptions is not the basis for any legal liability, civil or 31 criminal, nor considered a violation of this chapter; or

32 (24) To a probate court of competent jurisdiction, petitioner, respondent, and/or their 33 attorneys, when the information is contained within a decision-making assessment tool which 34 conforms to the provisions of section 33-15-47.

1 (c) Third parties receiving and retaining a patient's confidential health care information 2 must establish at least the following security procedures:

3 (1) Limit authorized access to personally identifiable confidential health care 4 information to persons having a "need to know" that information; additional employees or agents 5 may have access to that information which does not contain information from which an individual 6 can be identified;

7 (2) Identify an individual or individuals who have responsibility for maintaining security 8 procedures for confidential health care information;

9 (3) Provide a written statement to each employee or agent as to the necessity of 10 maintaining the security and confidentiality of confidential health care information, and of the 11 penalties provided for in this chapter for the unauthorized release, use, or disclosure of this 12 information. The receipt of that statement shall be acknowledged by the employee or agent, who 13 signs and returns the statement to his or her employer or principal, who retains the signed 14 original. The employee or agent shall be furnished with a copy of the signed statement;

15 (4) Take no disciplinary or punitive action against any employee or agent solely for 16 bringing evidence of violation of this chapter to the attention of any person.

17 (d) Consent forms for the release or transfer of confidential health care information shall 18 contain, or in the course of an application or claim for insurance be accompanied by a notice 19 containing, the following information in a clear and conspicuous manner:

20 (1) A statement of the need for and proposed uses of that information;

21 (2) A statement that all information is to be released or clearly indicating the extent of 22 the information to be released; and

23 (3) A statement that the consent for release or transfer of information may be withdrawn 24 at any future time and is subject to revocation, except where an authorization is executed in 25 connection with an application for a life or health insurance policy in which case the 26 authorization expires two (2) years from the issue date of the insurance policy, and when signed 27 in connection with a claim for benefits under any insurance policy the authorization shall be valid 28 during the pendency of that claim. Any revocation shall be transmitted in writing.

29 (e) Except as specifically provided by law, an individual's confidential health care 30 information shall not be given, sold, transferred, or in any way relayed to any other person not 31 specified in the consent form or notice meeting the requirements of subsection (d) of this section 32 without first obtaining the individual's additional written consent on a form stating the need for 33 the proposed new use of this information or the need for its transfer to another person.

34 (f) Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to limit the permitted disclosure

1 of confidential health care information and communications described in subsection (b) of this 2 section.

3 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
